 Prayer. Pray for peace every day, and ask God to help you to be a peacemaker.

- 2. Fasting. Fast from food and drink for one day each week, and donate the money you would have spent on food to a charity that works to promote peace.
- 3. Almsgiving. Give money to charities that work to promote peace, and help those who have been affected by war.
- 4. Pilgrimage. Visit a place of peace, such as a peace museum or a meditation center.
- 5. Service. Volunteer your time to help those who have been affected by war, such as refugees or veterans.
- 6. Penance. Do something that is difficult or uncomfortable, such as walking barefoot or sleeping on the floor.
- 7. Mortification. Give up something that you enjoy, such as smoking or drinking alcohol.
- 8. Sacrifice. Offer something valuable to God, such as your time, money, or possessions.
- 9. Contrition. Express your sorrow for the sin of war, and ask God for forgiveness.
- 10. Confession. Confess your sins to a priest or other religious leader, and receive absolution.
- 11. Reconciliation. Make peace with those whom you have wronged, and forgive those who have wronged you.
- 12. Penance. Do something to make amends for your sins, such as writing a letter of apology or making a donation to charity.

These penances are not easy, but they are necessary if we want to create a world without war. By following these penances, we can atone for the sin of war and bring about peace on Earth.
