This book is a powerful and inspiring account of a mother and son's journey through Charcot-Marie-Tooth disease (CMT). CMT is a genetic disorder that affects the nerves and muscles. It can cause a variety of symptoms, including weakness, muscle atrophy, foot deformities, and difficulty walking.

The author, a mother of two, was diagnosed with CMT when she was in her early 30s. Her son, who was just a toddler at the time, was also diagnosed with CMT a few years later. The author and her son have since faced the challenges of CMT together. They have learned to cope with the symptoms of the disease and to live full and active lives.

This book is a story of hope, strength, and love. It is a story that will inspire anyone who has ever faced adversity. It is a story that will remind you that even in the darkest of times, there is always hope.
