Chapter 1: The Legend of Henry Cowell

Henry Cowell was a logger who lived in the Santa Cruz Mountains in the late 1800s. He was a hard-working man who loved the mountains and the trees. But Cowell was also a cruel and abusive man. He often beat his wife and children, and he was known to be violent towards his neighbors.

One day, Cowell was working in the mountains when he was caught in a rockslide. He was crushed to death, and his body was never found.
