The Alps are one of the most iconic mountain ranges in the world, and they offer some of the best trekking opportunities in Europe. With stunning scenery, challenging trails, and a rich cultural heritage, the Alps are a trekker's paradise.

Trekking In The Alps Mountain Walking is the definitive guide to trekking in the Alps. With detailed descriptions of over 50 treks, ranging from easy day hikes to challenging multi-day treks, this book has something for everyone.

The treks in this book are divided into three regions: the Western Alps, the Central Alps, and the Eastern Alps. Each region has its own unique character, and the treks in this book offer a wide range of experiences, from gentle walks through flower-filled meadows to challenging ascents of some of the highest peaks in Europe.

Whether you're a seasoned trekker or just starting out, Trekking In The Alps Mountain Walking has something for you. With detailed maps, elevation profiles, and GPS coordinates, this book will help you plan and execute your perfect trek in the Alps.
